

Young at Art

An exhibition and celebration of young people's art will be held in Saint Laurence's Church

10.00 am to 4.00 pm, on Saturday September 14th 2013

(during the Food Festival and Open Churches weekend)

The idea is to give young artists a platform and help them get to know an older generation. Art may include: painting, photography, graphics, sculpture, poetry, woodwork, needlework (possibly music as well). We are inviting the artists to be there to talk about their work, informally of course. We stress the importance of 'young people's art', though the exhibition need not be exclusive to 16 – 24 year olds.

Contributions from older generations welcomed in the form of cakes and puddings to add to the free lunch planned for the participants.

Please put the date in your diary and come and support this initiative!

Organized by the Young Persons' Group of the 'Churches Together around Ludlow' (CTAL) initiative.

Invitations to participate have been sent to eleven organizations involved with young people.

Contacts:

Neil Richardson, Jane Robinson, Ian Barge, Viv Parry, Graeme Perks